GAR MEMORIAL HIGH SCHOOL

VOLUME 38

FOREWORD

Another year is gone, and with it another class has left its mark on GAR Memorial High School.

The memories of our years here are vivid now, but they will fade as new imprints are made. New spotlights of interest will be shed on all of us. But when we dim these lights to recollect those memorable high school days, we shall take pride in having been a part of life at GAR.

This annual will help us to remember the events of our senior year. But more than that, it will help us strive to better ourselves as individuals, thus making GAR proud of us.

THE SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

SEATED: Eileen Kotzer, Mantle Orator; Joan Waskell, Secretary. STANDING: Paul Davies, Vice Pres.; Francis Michael, President; Anthony Morris, Treasurer.

Just as a cornerstone carries the weight and burden of a building, so do the Senior Class Officers bear the heavy task of trying to keep the Senior Class working as a uniform body striving for the smooth running and success of all Senior affairs.

Hats off to the Senior leaders of 1965 for the role they eagerly played in attaining the goal of every Senior class — to make theirs "the best!"

THE SUCCESSFUL STORY

The ushers added an atmosphere of gaiety and cheer to this gala affair.

The Concert Band under the direction of Mr. Primatic gave an inspired performance at the annual concert. Both Mr. Primatic and the members of the band deserve a great deal of praise for their time and effort which resulted in the overwhelming success of this year's concert.

One of the highlights included a trumpet trio.

OF "SHOW TIME"

The annual Garchoir Concerts have been an inspiration to many people in Wyoming Valley. The popularity of this accomplished glee club is accredited to the G.A.R. students and Mr. Ayre, their director. Mr. Ayre has given us twenty-six years of dedicated service, and though this is his last year, he will long be remembered at G.A.R.

Phyllis Cross captivated the entire audience by her splendid performance!

Let's give it a little more oomph!!

Football

Persistence, good coaching, hard work, and the G.A.R. school spirit made up some of the factors of the '64 football team.

The Competition in the Wyoming Valley Conference was rough, and G.A.R. gave it added flavor by baffling the fans and opponents alike. They defied all logic. G.A.R. just couldn't be for real.

On paper and on the ground the Grenadiers were light, small, – no contender for the crown, – and certainly should not have won more than half their games. Yet they blanked many an opponent and gave that added lift that the local football competition needed by a 6-3-1 season.

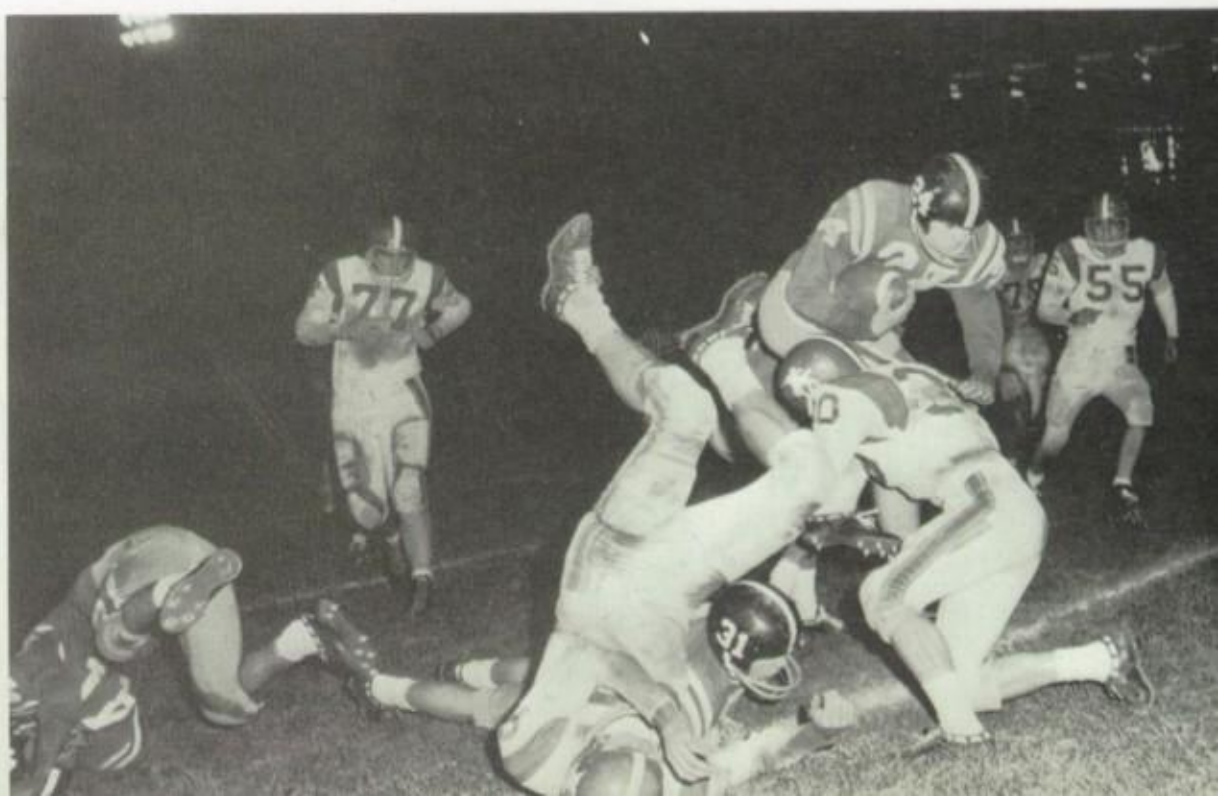
When one looks at the Grenadiers, one can't point to any one star; for everyone was outstanding. When the team put on a blitz, it was not just one or two men red-dogging; it was eleven. And it isn't easy to stop an eleven man blitz.

One can't give all the credit to the players alone, for the Coaches provided that extra push toward victory. With Chet Wasilewski as the new Head Coach the Grenadiers opened his career with a good season. The G.A.R. fans believe that Mr. Wasilewski will have an even better season next year.

All in all, it was an exciting year for both fans and players.

Whew! Was that close.

Comitz picks up more yardage.



Marino around end.

Did you say it's in the stands behind the cage?

Wyoming Valley Champions and City Champions

The G.A.R. High School wrestling team, coached by Mr. Al Sallitt and Mr. Joe Zondlo, won the school's first Wyoming Valley Conference crown by ending the season undefeated in conference meets. The team put out the greatest effort possible all year. Anyone who has ever watched the boys practice or participate in a meet knows the amount of work put into the wrestling season. In eleven dual meets, which include 132 individual bouts, opponents have pinned only 6 G.A.R. Matmen. This is truly an excellent record, and we congratulate these fine boys who made it all possible.

City champions for the 6th consecutive year receive their trophy. STANDING TOP: Mr. Hensley, G. Griffiths, D. Hill, M. Mazanko, Mr. Zondlo. ROW 2: S. Morgan, J. Kravas, F. Michael, M. Koury, D. Jones, Mr. Jordan. ROW 3: Mr. Jones, Mr. Hughes, Mr. Sallitt, Mr. Wood, Mr. Ritchie.

How about another coke?

It was, "Some Enchanted Evening."

The Queen and her court: P. Harding, R. Gluc, M. Gilroy, '65 Queen, J. Macierowski, '64 Queen, C. Bachunas, M. Denessi, P. Banik, J. Graham.

SEATED at the head table were: Miss Mulhern, Mrs. Hilburt, Mr. Jordan, Mrs. Jordan, Mr. Hensley, Mrs. Hensley, Miss Stevens, Mr. Bartish, Mrs. Ayre, Mr. Ayre.

Class Night

Now, what could she be writing??

Anyone for swimming?

Tom Andrews receives the Science award.

Seniors, how are those Garchives?

Awards Day

The most outstanding athlete, scholar, and gentleman.

President Edward Zabroski receives an award for the Key Club from Betty Kanaar.

Susan Kazmarek presents the class gift to Mr. Hensley.

Tom Morrissey receives Mantle from Eileen Kotzer.

Class Day

The Class Prophecy was dramatized by the members of the Class of '65.

The Class Will was read by a little volunteer from the audience.

President of Mansfield State College, Fred E. Bryan, is the guest speaker.

The big day has finally arrived.

Let's not get grabby!

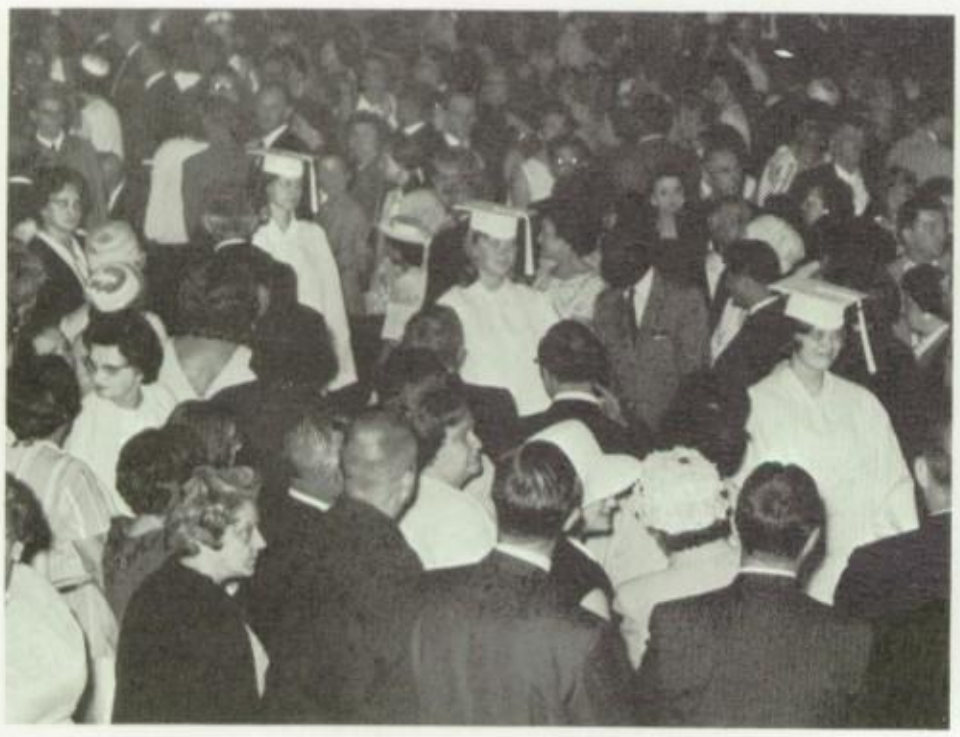
Who's nervous???

ation

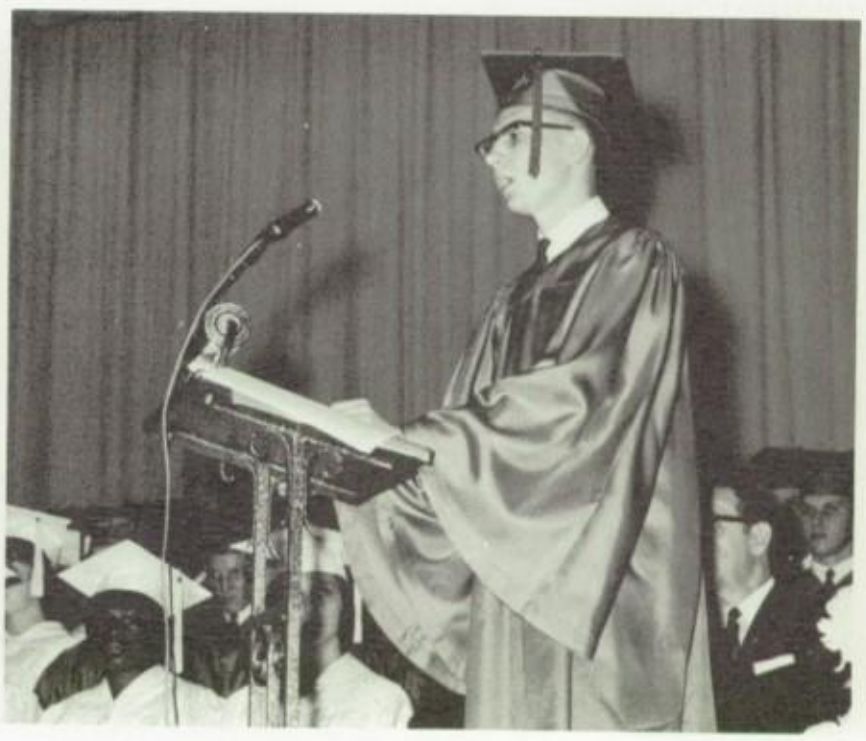
1965

It's MINE!!

Hey look us over!!



And the parents watch on.



Thomas Andrews gives the class oration.

Luncheon

J. Babuscak, B. Germain, E. Cole, D. Grula, L. Challis, N. Kosteleba.

A beautiful show of hats at the head table.

Chatting and relaxing before the luncheon.

The Jr. Chorus takes a bow after a fine performance.

Everyone agrees that Diane gives a beautiful solo.

Jr. Chorus and Band Concert

Franklin demonstrates his skill as a serious oboe player.

The band and Mr. Primatic get a well deserved round of applause.

ROW 1: J. Jones, R. Godfrey, E. Carter, D. Horowitz, G. Whitt, R. Bowers, M. Adzema, J. Jones, R. Grimes, J. Weinstock, J. Masi, J. Chwiej, W. Vaver, R. Petrovich, T. White. ROW 2: J. Morriken, R. Track

In his rookie year as track coach Mr. Vincent Wojnar, an expert in his field, guided the track squad like a veteran through thick and thin. With a new interest that Coach Wojnar has inspired in this sport, we know that track is on its way up at GAR.

Nice play, Joe. You did it again!

Come on, throw it!

Will he make it?

Class Song of 1965

Tune: The Long Ships

Lyrics: Sherry Handel

Class of "65,"
Time has come to part us.
Mem'ries are dear.
Of times spent here,
We fondly bid adieu.
Farewell, G.A.R.,
We will always miss you.

The Blues and Gray,
Will always stay,
With us when we're far away.
Tears blend with smiles new,
We must go on our way.
Dear friends, and out teachers true,
You've made our dreams come in view.
You are in the past;
Now our future calls us.
But we all pray,
That they will stay —
Our mem'ries of G.A.R.

Missing from the regular faculty section are pictured: G. Schappert, English Coordinator; and R. Jones, Public Speaking and English teacher.
